

If the FCC lets
Sinclair
Broadcasting
broadcast its diatribe against John Kerry and call
it news, or if the FCC lets the broadcast stand as journalism after getting so incensed
about Janet Jackson's sequined
nipple, then the FCC
will have failed to regulate the airways, a job that is its responsibility
as a governmental
agency.

Thank you.

Rolf Samuels